FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dripping Springs Community Job Fair May 24th

May 13, 2016

DRIPPING SPRINGS, TEXAS – Are you looking for a job closer to home? Dripping Springs Chamber of Commerce and the City of Dripping Springs will host a free Community Job Fair on Tuesday, May 24th from 4 to 7 pm at The Foundry Building, located at the southern-most part of the Dripping Springs United Methodist Church campus at 28900 RR 12 in Dripping Springs.

Individuals interested in seeking employment are encouraged to attend. Both large and small companies and organizations will be on hand and provide opportunities for job seekers to meet face to face with some of the area's best employers.

Dripping Springs Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Sherrie Parks said the job fair is a "win-win" for Dripping Springs area businesses, citizens, and the local economy. "We want to help connect businesses who are seeking full and part-time employees with the right people to help their business grow," Parks said. "At the same time, we want to help our citizens locate better jobs, so they can put more money into our economy. The outcome is good for everyone," she said.

City of Dripping Springs Mayor Todd Purcell added that "with our region's growth, we are getting more and more opportunities in the Dripping Springs area which allow our citizens to work closer to home and enjoy more quality time with their families."

At the job fair, employers will take applications and resumes and talk to job applicants of all experience and education levels. Some of the positions available include certified nursing assistants, child care providers, custodial staff, wait staff, chiropractic assistant, bartenders, culinary staff, automotive technician, licensed vocational nurses, transportation, child nutrition, and more.

In addition to the employers represented, there will be booths that provide interviewing and resume writing tips, information on How to Dress for Success, and resources for job training.
