Additional Information / Submittal Requirements:

An Extraterritorial Determination Letter (ETJ-DL) request verifies if the property is located within Dripping Springs Extraterritorial Jurisdiction and allowable uses on the particular piece of property. More complex requests, i.e. an interpretation of the City's Code of Ordinances and/or Comprehensive plan, or to answer a question as to how a specific city ordinance (e.g. Zoning, Subdivision, etc.) applies to a situation may result in the need for further administrative action and additional applications and fees.

- Extraterritorial Determination Letter will provide an official determination of the subject property and a list of regulations applicable to the subject property.
 - Submit completed form
 - Application fee of $50 (for each property/R Number)

Please be advised that the ETJ determination letter is provided for convenience and only verifies information that could be discovered by consulting publicly available documents. This ETJ determination letter is not an interpretation of the City of Dripping Springs Code of Ordinances or the City of Dripping Springs Comprehensive Plan, and is not a development approval, development permit, or action by the City of Dripping Springs. Please be aware that the information provided herein is based on current regulations and can be subject to change with enactment or amendment of ordinances. If you require action by the City of Dripping Springs, apply for a development permit, administrative action, or public hearing as provided in the City of Dripping Springs Code of Ordinances. If you have any further questions, please contact the Development Department.
