

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Bonnie Gonzalez
Communications Coordinator
City of Dripping Springs
512-858-4725

Dripping Springs Town Center Preliminary Conceptual Plan Moves Forward

DRIPPING SPRINGS, TEXAS – December 1 – A preliminary conceptual plan for the proposed town center project in Dripping Springs has been completed. The document, which is a rendering portraying the potential layout for the town center, will now go before several city boards, commissions and council. The public is invited to attend any of the meetings and make comments during the public hearings. The scheduled presentations are as follows:

Dec. 4--TIRZ Board (4 p.m.)

Presentation

Public Hearing

Consideration and Possible Action

Dec. 4--Historic Preservation Commission (5:30 p.m.)

Presentation

Public Hearing

Consideration and Possible Action

Dec. 12--City Council (5:30 p.m.)

Presentation during workshop

No action taken

Dec. 18--Planning & Zoning Commission (6:30 p.m.)

Public Hearing

Consideration and Possible Action

Dec. 19--City Council (6 p.m.)

Public Hearing

Consideration and Possible Action

Residents may also submit comments to the City Secretary at acunningham@cityofdrippingsprings.com. Citizens are also encouraged to visit the city's website and view the preliminary conceptual plan along with a summary and background information. Please visit <http://www.cityofdrippingsprings.com/page/city.tirzboard>